Early-career marketing researcher specializing in tourism marketing, place branding, consumer behavior and technology adoption. Experienced in quantitative and qualitative research, with a growing focus on AI and immersive technologies in tourism marketing.

EDUCATION

- 2026 – present PhD in Business Administration (Marketing), KFUPM Business School, King Fahd University of Petroleum and Minerals, Saudi Arabia (GPA: 3.83/4.0). Fully Funded by Saudi Arabian Government.
- 2023 – 2025 MSc in Business Studies (Marketing), KFUPM Business School, King Fahd University of Petroleum and Minerals, Saudi Arabia (CGPA: 3.52/4.0). Fully Funded by Saudi Arabian Government.
- Thesis title: From Heritage to High-Tech: How and When Traditional & AI-Generated Destination Personalities Influence Travel Intentions
- Research Methods: This study employs a quantitative quasi-experimental design, examining how traditional and AI-generated destination images influence travel intentions among 510 American respondents. Self-congruence is tested as a mediator, while perceived sustainability and destination preference serve as moderators. Data was analyzed using SPSS and SmartPLS to assess the proposed relationships.
- 2019 - 2022 Bachelor of Business Administration (Hons), Albukhary International University, Malaysia (CGPA: 3.57/4.0). Fully Funded by Albukhary Foundation, Malaysia.
- Thesis: Enhancing the Environmental Performance of Organizations through green HRM: The role of individual green behavior.
- Research Methods: This study employs a combination of literature review and online archive research. Relevant theories and frameworks were examined to synthesize key findings and identify gaps for future research.
